

Biscuit Gingerwhiskers North Pole Reporting Office

1 Candy Cane Lane · North Pole · Special Delivery

To my friend friend,

Hello friend!

My name is Biscuit Gingerwhiskers, and I am your very own Christmas elf. The Big Boss up north gave me a very special job this year: to visit your home, watch for kind and helpful things, and fly back each night to tell him everything wonderful you did.

You will not always see me, because I am excellent at hiding. Look for me in the morning — I pick a new spot every single night. When you find me, please do not touch me or my magic gets fuzzy and I sneeze glitter for a week (it happened to my cousin).

I have heard wonderful things about you already, friend. Keep being kind, keep being you, and I will make sure your name stays right at the top of the Nice List.

Biscuit Gingerwhiskers

Biscuit Gingerwhiskers, your elf

October 23, 2026

P.S. _____

Door hangers

Cut along the dashed lines, punch a hole, and hang them anywhere an elf might rest

The Elf Is In!

Knock softly. Reporting in progress.

Elf Napping

flew all night. Back in the morning.

Tip: cardstock works best. Tape a ribbon through the hole to hang.